

Labor Redistribution

If an incorrect Organization code or Account Number was used on labor distribution in a prior pay period, a transaction is used to correct the error. Redistributions will be addressed and processed around the first week of the following month. Departments should send an email to the Payroll Department requesting any corrections. All emails should be submitted by the last week of each month.