Good afternoon,

At the end of the last CAB meeting, I mentioned there would be a course revision coming through which could be discussed via email, without a formal presentation being made. Since that time, a few additional items have been submitted, which also do not require formal presentations.

The documents are ready for your review and are located at <I:\Curriculum\CAB Members\2008-09\02.26.09 - Electronic Meeting>.

Upon review, if you have any questions or concerns regarding any of the proposals, please reply to all when discussing. Your response, in favor or otherwise, is needed no later than noon, Friday, March 6.

Thank you,
Karen
