AREA OF EMPHASIS FOR THE ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE

The Associate of Arts degree provides general academic courses and electives for students who plan to transfer to a college or university. Because of the various transfer requirements at colleges and universities, and to ensure enrollment in appropriate courses, students should verify course transferability with a CCCCD academic advisor and/or the college or university that they plan to attend.

The Anthropology program is designed to provide students with essential life skills and help them better understand themselves and the world around them. Anthropology asks, "What does it mean to be human?" "What different ways are there of being human?", and "How are we to understand these commonalities and differences?" These are critical questions for a world torn by racial and ethnic conflicts and divided by bigotry and unequal opportunities for individual growth and societal development. The study of such questions requires the integration of archaeological, biological, and cultural research — the basic components of anthropology. Anthropology majors or minors gain a solid foundation in the discipline that prepares them for transferring into a university program.

Career Opportunities

The majority of students selecting anthropology as their emphasis at CCCCD transfer into a college or university program. Entry-level positions are available in cultural resource management firms upon completion of an associate degree. Anthropology majors at colleges and universities typically seek careers in teaching the social sciences or research and planning in
