SENIORS ACTIVE IN LEARNING (SAIL)

COLLIN COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

*Why drift through life
when you can SAIL?*

WHAT IS SAIL?

SAIL is an educational program operated by and for individuals 50 years of age or better under the sponsorship of Collin County Community College Continuing Education. SAIL offers classes in the spring and fall semesters, a lecture series and discussion groups during the summer, and social activities throughout the year. Anyone who is 50 years of age or better can join, regardless of residence. SAIL is affiliated with Elderhostel Institute Network as an Institute of Learning in Retirement, one of more than 250 similar programs nationwide

WHERE AND WHEN ARE CLASSES HELD?

SAIL offers a wide variety of non-credit classes in history, literature, bridge, art appreciation and many other subjects. Classes are held at the Collin County Community College Courtyard Center, 4800 Preston Park Blvd. in Plano. Classes meet during the week between 9:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Parking is convenient, close to the classrooms, and much of it is covered. No college degree is required to attend SAIL classes, just a desire to learn.

WHAT IS THE COST?

Members pay an annual $25 membership fee. Fall and Spring semester enrollment is $50 each semester for an unlimited number of SAIL classes; enrollment in one class only is $25.
