VISUAL ARTS

The art department provides students with a complete curriculum, talented supportive instructors and a state-of-the-art facility. Students can choose from coursework in the basics of design, drawing or art appreciation/history and progress toward a wide variety of studio art classes including ceramics, sculpture, painting, watercolor, printmaking, art metals and computer art. Student art is prominently displayed in various exhibit spaces throughout the college district.

PHOTOGRAPHY – The photography program at Spring Creek Campus is a combination of traditional fine art photography, cutting-edge digital photography and a full complement of coursework in alternative photographic processes. A comprehensive photo laboratory, diverse full-time and associate faculty, and international travel opportunities enhance student achievement for interested photography students.

APPLIED GRAPHIC DESIGN TECHNOLOGY – a graphic design and New Media discipline within the Fine Arts Division at Collin County Community College. Degree and certificate programs include graphic design, 3D animation, multimedia, digital video, illustration, internet/web design, 3D entertainment animation and gaming animation. The AGDT program is enhanced by the expertise of accomplished full-time faculty in conjunction with more than 20 associate faculty, who bring current and cutting-edge industry experience into the classroom. For more information, call 972.881.5368 or email gcooksey@ccccd.edu. All art exhibits and sales are open to the public and will be on display in the Atrium of the Spring Creek Campus, 2800 E. #### DANCE

Collin County Community College District's dance program has a strong reputation for excellence in dance education, choreography and performance, propelling students into several prestigious university dance programs. The dance curriculum includes multiple levels of ballet, modern, jazz, tap, dance appreciation, improvisation, choreography and performance classes.

Students interested in additional dance experience may audition for CCCCD's resident dance company, "Collin County Dance Repertory." The mission of the company is to produce contemporary dance works at the highest level of artistic excellence. The dance company attends and performs at the American College Dance Festival annually and has received the Gala Award in 1998, 2000 and 2001. Auditions for the dance company are held prior to the fall semester. For more information, call 972.881.5830 or email tarnold@ccccd.edu. All dance programs will be held in the John Anthony Theatre at the Spring Creek Campus, 2800 E. Spring Creek Parkway in Plano.
