

SUGGESTIONS TO MAKE A SUCCESSFUL TRANSFER

- Housing application (if living on campus)
- Keep detailed records, names of contacts made, and copies of documents sent to colleges or universities.
- Maintain a high grade point average, especially for your first semester. A minimum GPA of 2.0 is required for admission at most colleges.
- Be aware of deadlines and fees.
- Resist the urge to carry too many credit hours during the first semester, especially if you are going to be working.
- Join an organization that sounds interesting to you and enjoy the fun.
- Enjoy the journey. If you start early, keep your goals in mind, and follow these hints and suggestions; you will manage your transfer successfully.

Once you have decided where you want to transfer and what you want to accomplish there:

- Apply early. Many colleges and universities require your application six to nine months prior to your date of enrollment.
- Meet with your CCCCD academic advisor and make contact with an advisor/liaison at your prospective college or university to ensure a smooth transfer.
- Start applying early and meet all deadlines for institutional, departmental, and private scholarships.
- Attend student orientation or information sessions offered by the college or university.

PLAN NOW FOR THE FUTURE

Although you may intend to spend two years at Collin County Community College District, your first semester enrolled with us is the best time to begin making your transfer plans. You have several resources available to assist you with your transfer plans. It is never too early to start planning!

SEE AN ACADEMIC ADVISOR

Academic advisors help define your short- and long-term transfer goals, evaluate where you are academically, and assist you with course selections.

VISIT A TRANSFER LAB

The Transfer Lab is a source of such information as:

- Course equivalencies between CCCCD and colleges and universities
- Degree plans and transfer guides for colleges and universities
- Transfer of credit information
- Directory listing of requirements and contacts for the most-requested transfer colleges and universities
- Library of catalogs for Texas and out-of-state colleges and universities
- State of Texas Common Applications

Academic advisors and the Transfer Labs are located in the Student Development Centers at CCCCD@Allen, Central Park Campus (room A108), Preston Ridge Campus (room F135), and Spring Creek Campus (room G103). In addition, transfer information may be found at the Courtyard Center for Professional and Economic Development (room A312) and online at <http://www.ccccd.edu/studentservices/students.html>.

MAKE WISE CHOICES

Consider the following when choosing where to continue your studies:

- Academic reputation
- Degrees and areas of study (majors and minors)
- Admission requirements for transfer students
- Size of campus and student body
- Student population: coed, male or female
- Tuition and fees, room and board expenses
- Availability of financial aid and scholarships
- Employment opportunities (on or off campus)
- Placement and career objectives
- Public, private or religious affiliation

BEGIN YOUR RESEARCH USING THE FOLLOWING RESOURCES

- World Wide Web
- College transfer days
- Personal visits to tour the college or university
- College transfer fairs at CCCCD

CHECK DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Transfer of credit (core courses, fields of study, and pre-professional requirements) from CCCCD to a college or university can be a very simple process. Be aware, however, that each college and university determines which courses will be required for graduation in a particular degree. Not all transferable courses can be used toward a specific degree. Some courses are designed for job entry and career preparation and may not transfer.
