

Summary of Credentials and Experience of Collin County Community College District Department Chairs

Name: Eugene C. Foley

Title: Professor and Chair of Developmental Mathematics

Years of CCCCD Service: 2.5 years

Academic Preparation:

Highest Degree: Master of Arts

Institution: Wayne State University

Field/Discipline: Mathematics

Other Degree: 30 hours beyond Master of Arts

Institution: Wayne State University

Field/Discipline: Education Administration and Supervision

Other Degree: Bachelor of Science

Institution: Illinois State University

Field/Discipline: Mathematics

Other relevant Certification/Licensure:

Professional Experience:

Current Position: Professor and Chair of Developmental Mathematics

Collin County Community College District

Dates: Sept. 2001-Present (professor), Sept. 2003-Present (chair)

Primary Responsibilities:

1. Assist with the development of and implementation of the academic strategic plan within the department.
2. Manage departmental academic affairs and budget.
3. Recruit, interview and recommend employment of associate faculty.
4. Coordinate with full-time faculty the mentoring, class visitation and written evaluation of associate faculty.

◆ Wayne County Community College	Full-Time Math Instructor	1997-2000
◆ Westark Community College	FT Dev. Math Instructor	1995-1997
◆ Northwestern Adult Education	Principal	1984-1985
◆ Mumford High School	Dean of Students	1974-1984
◆ Mumford High School	Math Department Head	1972-1974
◆ Detroit Public Schools	Math & Sci Dept H/Math Inst.	1965-1974
◆ Cleveland Public Schools	Math Instructor	1962-1965

Other Academic Honors/Significant Accomplishments:

August 2002	Collin County Community College Quality Teaching Scholarship Award
August 2003	Collin County Community College Quality Teaching Scholarship Award
July 1955	Organization of School Administrator Outstanding Service Award
May 1986	Ester Caddell Outstanding Teacher Award