

Summary of Credentials and Experience of Collin County Community College District Department Chairs

Name: David Marble

Title: Departmental Chair of Political Science and Criminal Justice

Years of CCCCDC Service: 4.5 years

Academic Preparation:

Highest Degree: Masters of Public Administration

Institution: University of Utah

Field/Discipline: Public Administration (Criminal Justice Administration)

Other Degree: Bachelors of Arts

Institution: Brigham Young University

Field/Discipline: Political Science

Other Degree:

Institution:

Field/Discipline:

Other relevant Certification/Licensure:

Correctional Officer POST certification from the State of Utah

Professional Experience:

Current Position: Professor of Criminal Justice (in addition to Departmental Chair)

Collin County Community College District

Dates: August 1999 to the present

Primary Responsibilities:

Teach Criminal Justice classes, advise student, assess student learning, grade student work, assign grades for students, serve on college task forces, committees, advise student organization.

Other Academic Honors/Significant Accomplishments:

Member of national honor societies during college years

Graduated Magna Cum Laude with B.A. degree

Earned Governor's award and Medal of Merit during graduate internship and employment with the Utah Department of Corrections