

Summary of Credentials and Experience of Collin County Community College District Department Chairs

Name: Warner Richeson

Title: CADD / Architectural Interior Design Chair

Years of CCCCD Service: 4 years – 6 months

Academic Preparation:

Institution: Oklahoma State University

Highest Degree: B.S. Electrical Engineering

Major/Discipline: Electronics

Institution: Sacramento State College

Other Degree:

Major/Discipline: Mathematics

Institution: Collin County Community College

Other Degree:

Major/Discipline: Printed Circuit Board Layout &
German

Other relevant Certification/Licensure: Certified AutoCADD Instructor (Texas Instruments). Microstation Training at Bentley Education Network

Professional Experience:

Current Position: CADD / Architectural Interior Design Chair

Collin County Community College District

Dates: August 1999 - present

Primary Responsibilities:

Council students,

Teach CADD courses,

Recruit instructors,

Justify new CADD programs / courses and changes to existing programs / courses;

Develop and teach Continuing Education CADD courses;

Global Edge CADD Coordinator;

Organize and meet with the Advisory Committee;

Specify text books to be used;

Prepare reports and documents as requested by management;

Participate in high school career nights;

Represent the college to the community as directed;

Oversee the Architectural Interior Design program;

Attend to other assignments as directed by the Dean; and
Set the schedule and location of classes for each term.

Previous Position: Senior Systems Engineer

Texas Instruments

Dates: December 1968 – October 1991

Primary Responsibilities:

Managed the Environmental Test program for several classified projects;

Prepare quotes and proposals for new contracts; and

Justify capital equipment purchases.

Previous Position: Owner

Warner Richeson Designs

Dates: August 1973 - present

Primary Responsibilities:

Design custom homes;

Represent customers before Planning and Zoning Commissions and City Councils on zoning and site plan issues;

Contract drafting;

Teach Computer-aided classes in industry; and

Design commercial architectural projects.

Professional Development Activities (within the past two years):

Attended seminars on new versions of CADD software.

Other Academic Honors/Significant Accomplishments:

Served on the Collin County Facilities Bond Committee

Served on the Plano Community Relations Commission