

Instructions: Annual FT Faculty Appraisals

New full-time faculty who start on or after May 1, 2024 will not have an annual appraisal, only a 90-day appraisal for 2023-2024. Temp full-time (TFT) faculty who taught for one long semester will not have an annual appraisal. TFT faculty who taught both long semesters will have performance appraisal without the goal review and goal-setting sections.

Phase 1, ASSOCIATE DEAN/DIRECTOR: REVIEW EMPLOYEE SELF-ASSESSMENT AND WRITE APPRAISAL

Launch Workday from Collin.onelogin.com or CougarWeb > My Workplace.

From the Workday Home/Welcome page:

1. Launch the appraisal under Awaiting Your Action. Do not be concerned about the due date listed in Workday. The overall appraisal due date is August 31, 2024. Please complete the appraisal with enough time to meet with the employee and obtain acknowledgments in Workday by August 31, 2024.

2. Review instructions for completing the appraisal. Click Get Started.
3. At any time, you may send back the self-assessment if a faculty member has not provided adequate or accurate comments, or has any issues related to goal evaluation or goal setting. Navigate to the end of the appraisal and click Send Back.

Advising and Supporting Students

The Council on Excellence Criteria for Faculty Engagement in Student Advising
A Collin College faculty member

- Provides advice to students about career and curriculum options
- Directs students to competent help for academic and non-academic problems, i.e., Tutoring, Writing Center, ACCESS, Counseling Center, etc.
- Supports student organizations and events
- Is available to and approachable by students and may provide letters of recommendation in support of student success or education/career objectives

Please Note: Not every bulleted item above may apply for every faculty member. In some cases there may be different or additional items that are unique to the faculty member's discipline or academic department.

ESSENTIAL PERFORMANCE FACTORS

The most important responsibility of individual faculty is to enhance the student learning experience. Successful support of students encompasses approachability and availability to assist students inside and outside of the class; advertising and maintaining office hours; being informed about the degree, certificate, and transfer requirements of programs within the discipline; and being knowledgeable, able to explain, and willing to refer to academic and non-academic college resources.

In the space below, enter either a concise narrative statement or a bulleted list that provides your associate dean or director with adequate information to assist them in assessing your level of engagement in advising and supporting students during the past year. Be sure to include any student-related activities that demonstrate your support of students outside of the classroom. Examples include participation in student organizations as well as attending sports events, PTK induction, student performances, receptions, etc. Some items may be duplicated in the College Service category.

Professional Development

The Council on Excellence Criteria for Professional Development

A Collin College faculty member

- Remains current and competent in the discipline, staying vigilant and continuously monitoring advances in related scholarship.
- Creates and sustains an on-going program of self-development and improved pedagogy
- Seeks opportunities for any of the following:
 - Professional growth formal research and publication, production in one's art, professional performance, etc
 - Presentations before professional societies or other meetings
 - Workshop and conference participation
 - Active involvement in professional associations or community organizations
 - Academic career advancement through course work

ESSENTIAL PERFORMANCE FACTORS

Each faculty member is expected to be intellectually active. Professional development may take many forms (see below), including active engagement in intellectual activities within one's own discipline, demonstrating efforts to stay current in one's field.

The following are types of activities that should be included:

- Conferences/workshops attended/conducted
- Professional presentations, papers presented/published/submitted for publication
- Scholarly research or professional creativity
- Collaborating on research projects with students
- Interdisciplinary work with colleagues
- Development of research and collaboration with other professionals
- Active involvement in professional organizations
- Developing and conducting artistic performances
- Coursework recently completed or in progress
- Any other ways in which you remain current in your discipline

Enter either a concise narrative statement or a bulleted list that provides your associate dean or director with adequate information to assist them in assessing your level of engagement in professional development activities during the past year.

Please Note: For conferences or workshops, in addition to their title(s), please include a brief description of their benefit to your teaching or professional activities at Collin. You may also choose to attach a copy of any travel summaries submitted for COE in the Supporting Documents section.

College Service

The Council on Excellence Criteria for College (Community) Service
A Collin College faculty member

- Actively and productively participates in college-wide, division, and department councils, task forces, and committees
- Creates programs/activities for the district that benefit students
- Performs other service activities designed to further the accomplishment of the college's mission
- Represents the college in the community serviced by the college district
- Engages in professionally-related community service

ESSENTIAL PERFORMANCE FACTORS

Faculty members should be actively engaged in service at either the program, department, division, or college level, or a combination thereof. College service provides opportunities for faculty to exercise a leadership role and assist the College in attaining its institutional strategic goals and mission. Characteristics of excellent service include dependability, thoughtfulness, active participation and preparedness regarding committee assignments, acceptance of responsibility and leadership roles; helping professional organizations meet goals; helping student organizations meet goals; and providing opportunities for students to interact with communities beyond the College.

Enter either a concise narrative statement or a bulleted list that provides your associate dean or director with adequate information to assist them in assessing your level of engagement in college service activities during the past year. Include detailed information about the type of service and your role, with title (if applicable) as well as listing achievements and contributions as a result of the service provided.

Please Note: When listing activities, do not include contract activities that are expected of all faculty members such as attending All College Day, graduation, or division meetings, etc.

12. Evaluate the completion of goals for the appraisal period (2023-2024). Click Rating to reveal the drop-down menu to indicate goal completion under Manager Evaluation. You may also add comments. When finished, click Next.

If the employee is new to Collin and completed the 90-day appraisal in Workday and set goals for 2023-2024, these goals should appear here. If the employee did not have goals for 2023-2024, this section will remain blank. Goal review is not required for temp full-time faculty.

If an employee has 2023-2024 goals, but they do not appear here for rating, please contact TrainingAndDevelopment@Collin.edu before continuing.

Do not edit 2023-2024 goal information on this page. If you do, you will receive an error when submitting the appraisal. Please refer to the goal revision job aid for further instructions.

If irrelevant goals from a prior year's appraisal appear here, please return the self-assessment for the faculty member to remove them.

The screenshot displays a form for goal evaluation. The 'Manager Evaluation' section is highlighted with an orange circle. Within this section, the 'Rating' field is a dropdown menu that is currently open, showing three options: 'COMPLETED', 'PARTIALLY COMPLETED', and 'NOT COMPLETED'. The 'COMPLETED' option is selected and highlighted in blue. The form also includes fields for 'Goal summary here', 'Description', 'Goal details here', 'Category', 'Due Date', 'Status', 'Partially Complete', and 'Comment'.

13. On the Goal Setting page, review the 2024-2025 goals set by the employee. You may edit these goals or add goals. Click Add to insert a new goal. Make sure you select an appropriate Faculty goal Category and identify a Due Date in Summer/Fall 2024-Spring 2025. Please ensure to update any incorrect goal categories.

Repeat this process until there are three or more goals for 2024-2025. When finished, click Next.

The screenshot shows a 'Goal' form with the following fields and annotations:

- Goal: A text area with a rich text editor toolbar. The placeholder text is "Enter SMART goal here."
- Description: A text area with a rich text editor toolbar. The placeholder text is "Additional details and information go here."
- Category: A dropdown menu. An annotation says "Select the appropriate staff or faculty goal category."
- Due Date: A date picker. An annotation says "Select an appropriate due date in Summer/Fall2024-Spring 2025."
- Status: A dropdown menu with "select one" as the selected option. A large orange 'X' is drawn over this field, and an annotation says "Do not include a status."

The screenshot shows a list of goal categories with checkboxes:

- Faculty - Professional Development
- Faculty - Service
- Faculty - Teaching
- Staff - Department Initiative
- Staff - Identifies with Collin College Core values
- Staff - Job Specific Goal

 - Exit the appraisal. Do not click Submit.
 - Print two copies of this appraisal or pull up the document on a computer screen and share with the faculty member.
 - During the meeting, review the appraisal, provide feedback, and address any concerns.
18. Make any final necessary changes to the appraisal online, click Next, then click Submit in the presence of the faculty member.

Employee Meeting Confirmation

Managers, complete the following steps before clicking "Submit":

1. Schedule and conduct a performance review meeting with the employee to discuss the performance appraisal.
2. During the review meeting, open the review on a laptop or tablet. As an alternative, you can print two copies of this review and bring them to the meeting.
3. During the meeting, go over the entire review, provide feedback, and address any employee concerns.
4. Make any necessary changes to this review online and confirm employee's acceptance at the meeting. If you have not yet completed steps 1-4, please click "Save For Later" – do not click "Submit."
5. In the presence of the employee, the supervisor should click "Submit." Once submitted, the review can no longer be modified.
6. The employee should log in within one to three business days to review, acknowledge, and submit the evaluation.
7. The supervisor will receive a final inbox item to acknowledge completion of the process.
