

New full-time faculty who start on or after May 1, 2024 will not have an annual review, only a 90-day review for 2023-2024. Temp full-time (TFT) faculty who taught for one long semester will not have an annual review. TFT faculty who taught both long semesters will have performance reviews without the goal review and goal-setting sections.

Phase 1, FACULTY: VERIFY 2023-2024 GOALS ARE ACCURATE

Before beginning the self-assessment, please ensure that goals for 2024-2024 are in Workday. Please refer to the goal verification job aid available in the Workday Resource Center. You will omit this step if you do not have goals for 2023-2024 because you were not full-time faculty with Collin College. If you had a 90-day review and set goals, these should appear in Workday.

Make any changes to your 2023-2024 goals PRIOR to beginning your self-assessment.

Advising and Supporting Students
The Council on Excellence Criteria for Faculty Engagement in Student Advising A Collin College faculty member
 Provides advice to students about career and curriculum options Directs students to competent help for academic and non-academic problems, i.e., Tutoring, Writing Center, ACCESS, Counseling Center, etc. Supports student organizations and events
 Is available to and approachable by students and may provide letters of recommendation in support of student success or education/career objectives
Please Note: Not every bulleted item above may apply for every faculty member. In some cases there may be different or additional items that are unique to the faculty member's discipline or academic department.
ESSENTIAL PERFORMANCE FACTORS
The most important responsibility of individual faculty is to enhance the student learning experience. Successful support of students encompasses approachability and availability to assist students inside and outside of the class, advertising and maintaining office hours; being informed about the degree, certificate, and transfer requirements of programs within the discipline; and being knowledgeable, able to explain, and willing to refer to academic and non-academic college resources.
In the space below, enter either a concise narrative statement or a bulleted list that provides your associate dean or director with adequate information to assist them in assessing your level of engagement in advising and supporting students during the past year. Be sure to include any student-related activities that demonstrate your support of students outside of the classroom. Examples include participation in student organizations as well as attending sports events, PTK induction, student performances, receptions, etc. Some items may be duplicated in the College Service category.
