Proposal Submission

“Due to the age, constant breakdowns, recurring vandalisms, and supply chain issues I would suggest replacing the SCC outdoor fountain with a walking, meditation labyrinth similar to the one at Chartres Cathedral. There would be an initial cost to fill in the hole and for stones/bricks and labor to create it, but it would be much easier and far less costly to maintain. It would also be a place that could be used by those interested in the walking meditation methods of de-stressing. It would not affect the current surrounding area as no plants would need to be removed, nor extra electrical lines installed. It would also help cut back on water usage as a consideration of the current climate state. A labyrinth is not necessarily used only by religious communities. Many use it as a form of walking Meditation, which would fit in with the Collin Mindfulness Program. That does not mean it couldn't be used in conjunction with religious Faith. In short, it can be enjoyed by users from Collin and the community.”

At times our own light goes out and is rekindled by a spark from another person. Each of us has cause to think with deep gratitude of those who have lighted the flame within us.”
